Choose FOUR from the following questions. 25 for each.

Give your thesis in the beginning, and provide effective examples from the texts to support your argument.

1. Discuss how the significance of gold treasure changes as the poem progresses in Beowulf.
2. What is a fabliau? According to poetic justice, where does each of the characters' faults lie in The Miller's Tale?
3. Discuss the ambiguities of social rank and gender identity in Twelfth Night.
4. Choose one of John Donne's poems and analyze its metaphysical conceit.
5. To what extent is Milton's Satan a sympathetic character? When does he cease to be so?
6. In what ways is Gulliver's Travels a brilliant satire on eighteenth-century English society? What are Gulliver's limitations as a narrator?
