Answer each of the following questions in a way that displays your grasp of and insight into the issue(s):

1. What is imagism in early 20th-century Anglo-American poetry?
2. What is epiphany and what is interior monologue and how does James Joyce use these techniques in his short stories or novels? Use one or two of his works for illustration.
3. The English literature in the Restoration and the Eighteenth Century is marked by decorum. What is decorum and how does Romanticism respond to it?
4. The general aim of The Faerie Queene, Edmund Spenser writes, is “to fashion a gentleman or noble person in vertuous and gentle discipline.” Please explain at some length how this book achieves this goal.
