Essay questions: Answer the following questions from the perspectives of teaching English as a foreign language in theory and practice. 100%

1. Based on your newly acquired knowledge, examine your strategies for teaching and learning English, and then describe how you will put them into practice.
2. What are the features of the Communicative Approach? Are there times in this approach when you emphasize accuracy over fluency?
3. What does cognitive psychology say about second/foreign language reading? What does every second/foreign language teacher need to know about reading?
4. What are affective factors? What has research revealed to us about affective factors? Are they generally assumed to influence second language acquisition? Where appropriate, cite sources to support your points of view.
5. What are the objectives and major characteristics of "English for Specific (or Academic) Purposes"? What may be the problems and solutions in developing the ESP (or EAP) curriculum?
