Please answer the following questions in an essay form.

1. If you are assigned to teach an English for Specific Purposes (ESP) class, e.g. English for tour guides or English for business managers, how are you going to organize the class? Please specify the steps you may take to make your instruction successful. (Hint: you might want to start from needs analysis and end with assessment of the entire program.) (25%)
2. Please roughly explain Brown's attitudes toward error treatment. What (or whose) theory (or theories) he employed to state how students' errors should be treated? (25%)
3. In an EFL setting, the learning environment is considered a drawback for learners of English because they are learning English in a non-English speaking environment. How can you do to improve the situation and to encourage cross-cultural communication? Illustrate some activities or projects you might have on your mind. (25%)
4. Suppose you are assigned to teach a remedial English class at college level, how do you summarize the most common characteristics of the class and how do you address the possible issues of the particular class? (25%)
