本試題共 2 大題， 1 頁

1. Discuss the cognitive/linguistic and social/pragmatic perspectives of second language acquisition (SLA) and its implications for classroom teachers worldwide. Address if you like the strengths and weaknesses of the Input-Interaction-Output model, and/or how SLA researchers have recently turned their attention from the L2 learner's acquisition of the grammatical sub-systems to his/her ability to communicate. (50%)
2. Discuss the concept of English as a lingua franca (ELF), namely how English is used as a contact language between people who share neither a common language nor a common culture, and its implications for TESOL professionals in Taiwan. Address if you like issues such as the ownership of English, language attitude and identity, NS relevance and/or appropriate learning models in second language pedagogy. (50%)
